PLAY RESPONSIBLY 18+

The following general terms detail conditions under which participation in betting games with fixed odds will be organized, accepted and settled by the NATIONAL LOTTERY plc, hereinafter referred to as “the Organiser”.

These rules regulate all issues concerning the organization and the holding of fixed odds betting games, as organized and operated by the Organiser. They also regulate the relationship between the Organiser and the player who participates in these games. These rules and regulations apply to all betting games with fixed odds, whether these are team or individual sports and other non-sporting events, which by their very nature can have bets placed on their outcome.

Participation in sports betting which is in excess of Eur 50 is subject to mandatory player registration. Kindly refer to the General Terms and Conditions of the Organiser for more information and applicable terms on the player registration. Nevertheless, the rules stated in these general terms apply to all betting games, irrespective of the Eur 50 threshold and regardless of player registration.

Your participation in fixed odds betting games can only be held through self-service betting terminal or any ancillary equipment located in the Organiser’s Licensed Point of Sale or at any other premises or location determined by the Organiser.

Financial administration of fixed odds betting games (payout to the players, cash vouchers, bonuses, refunds etc) is the exclusive responsibility of the Organiser.

IZIBET Sports Betting is operated and managed by National Lottery plc, a public liability company registered and incorporated in Malta with company registration number C100229 and having its registered office at The Quad Central, Q3, Level 11, Triq l-Esportaturi, Zone 1, Central Business District, Birkirkara, CBD 1040 Malta.

National Lottery plc is licensed and regulated by the Malta Gaming Authority (herein after referred to as “MGA”) (www.mga.org.mt) with License number: MGA/B2C/003/2022 issued on 5th July 2022.

These general terms shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Malta.

1.1 Managing of Fixed Odds Betting

Betting with fixed odds can take place through the System on the self-service betting terminal or any ancillary equipment that includes all events available for betting in the Sports Betting Engine. This includes Sports betting events, dates and time of said events, odds and other details and information concerning these events aiming to assist your participation.

The data and pricing feeds is made available through the Organiser's authorized System on the self-service betting terminals and by any other means decided by the Organiser.

In case where data or specific information regarding offered events is missing from the System on the self-service betting terminals or mistakes are noticed, the Organiser has the right to communicate this data in any other way possible. The bet acceptance period for the events offered in the System starts with the activation of betting transactions in the Sports Betting Engine and ends with the commencement of the last event stated in the System.

Bets are accepted only on the events included in the System and up to the date and time of the first betting event chosen by you, as validated by the Sports Betting Engine. Live In-Play Betting starts with the beginning of the event for which Live In-Play Betting is offered. Bets in Live In-Play Betting can be accepted during the time period when the event is being played.

In any case regarding the validity of bets, data registered in the Sports Betting Engine prevails over any other data.

Fixed odds betting games are the selections you can choose as a possible outcome for each of the offered events or group of events, as well as the quantity of events you can choose in order to create a betting line (column). The Organiser is responsible for deciding and publishing the value of a betting column.

Fixed odds betting games are offered with fixed odds for every selection separately or for a combination as chosen by yourself. Odds are presented in decimal format with two decimal points. The Organiser has the right to continuously change odds at any given time.

1.2 Participating in Fixed Odds Betting

Participation in fixed odds betting games is open to everyone, except individuals under the age of 18 (eighteen) and self-excluded patrons, under the condition that you accept these General Rules and Regulations completely and unconditionally, and also accept special rules and conditions decided by the Organiser periodically which will be communicated on the self-service betting terminals or broadcasted via other communication channels at varying times.

In order to participate in fixed odds betting games it is necessary to create at least one column, to make a payment either for the value of the column or columns produced, or if desired to multiply this value many times. Payment is finalized after the Sports Betting Engine has validated the bet, the validity of which can be proven by a printed ticket (betting slip) from the self-service betting terminal or any ancillary equipment. This printed ticket may contain your predictions, the odds that were valid at the moment of validation; it may also contain other data which are necessary to render the bet unique.

It is the Organiser's responsibility to determine and inform you through the self-service betting terminal or other communication of the maximum amount of payment per bet combination or combinations for participating in a single fixed odds betting game. In case the value of the bet exceeds the maximum amount determined by the Organiser, the bet will not be accepted.

In some fixed odds betting games it is possible to use "systems", represented by a combination of columns.

1.3 Acceptance of Bets

The Organiser has the right to accept or reject any bet, at any time, without obligation to justify his decision. In order to participate in fixed odds betting system, the Organiser determines that the maximum bet per ticket are in conformity with the Player Protection Directives.

If according to the Organiser's discretion there are special reasons, a special acceptance procedure through the self-service betting terminal or any ancillary equipment will apply, which implies possible changes of your initial selections as a result of the Organiser's proposals and your agreement. The final bet accepted by the Organiser is certified by the validation of that bet by the Sports Betting Engine.

A column that contains an event, which was postponed or called off, will be accepted only under conditions stated in these Rules.

1.4 Cancellation of Bets

A bet can be cancelled within a period of up to five (5) minutes after it was validated.

If for any reason cancellation of the bet cannot occur because the Sports Betting Engine cannot automatically recognize the bet that is meant to be cancelled, then the cancellation will not take place and the Organiser bears no responsibility for this.

When a bet is cancelled all combinations included in the bet are cancelled as well, and the payment for the bet is returned to you.

For Live In-Play Betting cancellations are not allowed.

1.5 Events and Game Results

The successful predictions of your selections are based on the official results announced by the Organiser through the self-service betting terminal or any ancillary equipment for all events in the System, that are organized in accordance with the rules and the official regulations of the game. The Organiser ensures that these results are always the official results as announced by the governing body of the respective Sports.

In the case of postponement or cancellation of one or more events, for which bets have been accepted, and before these changes were known and had been entered in the Sports Betting Engine, the results of the events offered are determined on the basis of rules contained within these regulations.

1.6 Winning Bets, Validation of Winnings

Each column entered in the Sports Betting Engine, is a winning one, when all selected outcomes have been successfully predicted. In this case a winning prize is paid to you and is equal to the value of the stake multiplied by the odds for all the selections included in the column. The odds are the ones valid at the time of validation of the bet. In the case of odds offered for the whole combination chosen by you, the winning prize paid to you is equal to the value of the stake multiplied by the odds given for this combination. The odds are the ones valid at the time of validation of the bet.

Payout of winnings, in accordance with the previous paragraph, is done only after all events included in the bet have finished and after there is confirmation of the respective record in the Sports Betting Engine. The winning amount, which should be paid to you after all calculations have been completed, is calculated to the second digit. The decimal value for all the odds is always given as a rounded decimal and the rounding of the third digit is calculated at '.5'. Therefore, if the third decimal is either 0, 1, 2, 3 or 4, a round down will take place and if decimal is either 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9 a round up will take place. The final rounding of the odds is reflected on the 'Total Odds' on the printed ticket.

The Organiser determines the maximum amount of winnings paid out are in conformity with the Player Protection Directives. In the case that there is an obvious mistake in the odds of the events on the basis of which the amount of winnings of a winning bet is calculated, the Organiser reserves the right to calculate the amount of winnings taking into account the correct odds and to pay you as a winning prize the amount produced by that calculation, retaining the maximum payout as stipulated by the Player Protection Directives.

The Organiser may, in its sole and absolute discretion, offer an early cash out option to the player which is a real-time pay-out offer for a winning bet currently in play. Therefore, if the player has an open ticket containing winning bets, the Organiser may offer an early cash out option for those winning bets which are calculated at a percentage determined by the Sports Betting Engine at the time. When and if such option is offered, the player can either accept or reject the offer. Early cash out options are only offered at the discretion of the Organiser and are strictly time-bound. Moreover, only those early cash out options that have been validated and secured by the Organiser's system are considered to be valid and binding.

If for whatever reason winning bets cannot be automatically recognized, the Organiser can apply special procedures, assuming the Sports Betting Engine can recognize these winning bets in some way.

In case of loss, complete or partial destruction of the betting receipt if such is provided, or in general, when it is not possible to recover the winning bet, the Organiser relinquishes all responsibilities to the payout of winnings, or to provide any other form of compensation. Winnings from bets that were placed must be collected within sixty (60) days from the end of the valid period of the respective System.

Cash Vouchers or Value Tickets are valid for sixty (60) days from the date and time of issuance. After this period, the voucher/ticket will expire, be deemed void, and no claims for funds or redemption will be accepted.

All vouchers issued by National Lottery PLC prior to May 1st, 2025, will automatically expire on June 30th, 2025.

The player is prohibited from selling, transferring and/or acquiring tickets to/from other players.

In the case where the Organiser determines there is reasonable doubt that the outcome of an event has been tampered with, thus breaking rules and official regulations governing such events, or in the case where there is evidence questioning the credibility of an event, the Organiser reserves the right to suspend payout of winnings.

Prior to the payment of winnings, the Organiser may take such time as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of ensuring that the player played in a fair manner, verifying his/her identity, conducting security and other internal procedures, ensuring that the rules and regulations relating to the game or event have been complied with by the player, and carrying out customer due diligence measures in terms of Anti-Money Laundering ("AML") legislation, or any other regulatory instrument.

Whenever requested or directed by the Organiser, the player is required to abide by the instructions and fulfil any customer due diligence measures, including the submission of any necessary documentation on the identity and/or source of funds or source of wealth. Until this documentation is submitted by player, the Organiser has the right to disallow withdrawal of winnings by the player, if applicable.

1.7 Maximum Winnings

The Organiser determines the maximum winnings per bet and / or per bet type and this is announced in the self-service betting terminal or any ancillary equipment. If a certain player or group of players, placed identical or similar bets in order to avoid the special procedure for bet acceptance of the second (2nd) paragraph of section 3 of these Rules, and the regulation as stated in the present article, the Organiser in this case, has the right to apply the maximum winnings, as defined within this article, to the total of the above bets.

1.8 Disputed and Complaints

Someone who presents a validated winning bet claiming this is not recognized as winning by the Sports Betting Engine or registers the winnings as lower than what they should be, has the right to submit a complaint to the Organiser within sixty (60) days from the time when the results for all events of the Program were entered into the Sports Betting Platform.

Force Majeure covers events that are beyond the control of the Organiser and which were unforeseeable and unavoidable. Any planning or application of defence measures by the Organiser cannot have possibly prevented these events. Force Majeure covers events such as, but not limited to, natural disasters (acts of God), floods, earthquakes, fires, war, strikes, embargo, acts of terror, etc.

1.10 Backoffice Data Storage

Data on all transactions entered into the Sports Betting Backoffice are kept for 10 years at the Organiser's responsibility.

1.11 Communication of Rules

These rules as well as all terms and conditions for the holding of fixed odds betting games, and the further detailed description of fixed odds bet types specific rules displayed on the self-service betting terminals, are made known to you in every possible way, (broadcasts, other printed or electronic material), and from the moment of announcement are considered as an integral part of the official rules of the game.

2. Significant Game Rules

2.1 General Provisions

For each possible outcome, stated in the System, odds are offered with which you can calculate your winnings. Odds available in the System or announced in any possible way, are starting odds and the Organiser reserves the right to change them whenever it is deemed necessary.

The Organiser decides and makes available in the System the rules concerning different types of bets. A betting column can include a number of predictions of event results, not related to the same event, depending on the Organiser's decision of minimum number of events that you can choose in one betting column. This information is inserted in the System.

The event times and dates indicated in the System are the times and dates that are valid in the country / location that the System has been indicated for. In all cases of event cancellation, postponement and suspension the local time refers to the time of the country / location where the event takes place.

You make your predictions according to the instructions given by the Organiser. These instructions are announced in any possible way (System, published materials and any other means).

The possibility and method of combining in the same betting column a type of bet with another type of bet, provided that these bets are not for the same event, are made available in the System. The possibility of combining in the same betting column bet types on the same event will be stated in the System.

Regarding team sports, the team, determined by the Organiser as the home team, is on the left side of the event, while the away team is on the right side of the event.

In case the winning outcomes are more than the expected ones (case of dead heat), then the odds for each winning outcome will be calculated according to the rules for the specific bet type, described in the specific Sports Betting Rules. The odds to be paid to you, as a result of applying the present rule, cannot be less than 1.00.

The exact duration of the Live In-Play Betting offer is based on the Organiser's decision. The winning outcome / outcomes for this type of bet will be officially announced by the Organiser, based on the announcements made by the organising body of the event regarding the results produced during the event. All bet types on football matches are offered for regular duration play, which includes time added on by the referee in respect of injuries and other possible stoppages.

For all bet types on sporting events the following is valid, unless otherwise is stated in the relevant paragraphs with the rules for any specific bet type:

If a match is cancelled or postponed and the actual date the game is finally played (in the event's local time) is beyond the next day from the date stated in the System (date of the initial announcement) or if a game was suspended and the time left from the suspension until the regular end of the game is played on a date (based on the event's local time) beyond the next day from the date stated in the system (date of the initial announcement) or if there is change of venue, or there is a change of opponents after it is made available in the System, then in all these circumstances your bets will be given odds of one (1.00), unless at the moment of suspension there is a winning outcome (an outcome or result that could not be changed even if the game was continued and completed).

In certain particular circumstances for which the Organiser may feel there are special reasons, certain bets offered, will be given odds of one (1.00). This is within the Organiser's exclusive rights.

The Organiser has the right to offer any other bet type apart without any other additional rules, under the condition that these bet types are not in contradiction with the above general rules and regulations.

The Organiser makes every effort to ensure that bets are accepted without errors. However, if as a result of human error or system problems a bet is accepted at a price (which includes the odds, handicap provisions, and other terms and conditions or details of the bet) that is materially different from those available in the general market at the time the bet was made then <OPERATOR> reserves the right to void all affected selections. Bets placed and accepted in good time may not be revoked or changed. It is therefore the user's sole responsibility to ensure that all of the details of his/her bets are correct.

Bets can only be placed on the outcome of future events. If an outcome is already known and not reflected in the odds, bets on these markets are void (e.g. a First Goalscorer bet is accepted after the first goal is scored"). 3.8 Settlement

For settlement purposes the initial official result, published by the official governing body immediately after the match/event is finished, will be considered final, following an event's closure. Unless a specific sport's rules state otherwise this rule will apply to all events.

- Any subsequent change to results, whether due to disciplinary hearings or otherwise, will be disregarded;
- If the official result of a sporting event is not available, the result will be determined at the sole discretion of <OPERATOR> with reference to all accessible evidence.

The Organiser reserves the right to apply a Dead Heat reduction on any event where more winners are declared than were originally specified. Dead Heat Rules apply to any market where more winners are declared than originally specified.

In the case of the withdrawal of a named team or participant from a competition or event we reserve the right to apply a deduction equivalent to Tattersalls Rule 4(C) to any outright or group betting where that competitor was listed.

3.9 Live Score Data

Please be aware that data such as current scores, match duration and time elapsed that is displayed on the terminals is sourced from a 'live feed' provided by a third party and may be subject to delay and/or be inaccurate. Any customer relying on this data to place bets, does so entirely at their own risk and <OPERATOR> accept no responsibility for any loss (direct or indirect) suffered as a result of live score data.

3.10 Collusion

Clients must register their bet requests as individuals. Repeated requests containing the same selections may be subsequently deemed void. Bet selections may be deemed void if the Organiser believes that clients are acting in collusion or as a syndicate or the bets in question have been placed by one or more clients within a short period of time.

3.11 Rigging

In the event that the Organiser suspects any event manipulation it withholds the right, in its absolute discretion, to:

- suspend the offering of any event or series of events in any of its markets; and
- delay and/or withhold payment on any event or series of events in any of its markets, until the integrity of such event or series of events has been confirmed by the relevant sports federation.

Further, in the case of active event manipulation being confirmed as having taken place on any event or series of events by the appropriate sports governing bodies, the company withholds the right, in its absolute discretion, to suspend any bets placed on such events, either by any individual identified as having possessed insider betting knowledge or information or by any other individual who in the reasonable opinion of the company is connected to, acting in conjunction with or in any way involved with such individual.

3.12 Ineligible Bettors

Bets on events in which the bettor is participating (“participating” includes persons involved as a sportsperson, athlete, as an owner, trainer or functionary of a participating club) or those which are commissioned by any person participating, are not permitted. In addition, bets on league, cup or other events in which the respective club/organisation is participating may not be placed or commissioned by those persons considered to be participating in the respective event. In the case of violation of these regulations, the company reserves the right to refuse payment of any winnings and invested stakes as well as to cancel any bets. The company takes no responsibility for knowing if the user is a participant as described above. Accordingly, <OPERATOR> is entitled to reclaim monies at any time using any necessary measures after an ineligible bettor or connected parties become known to <OPERATOR> and to report such business to the relevant sports authorities.

6.1 General Rules

All sports, including those played in North America, are listed as Home Team vs. Away Team.

All matches must start on the scheduled date (always at the local time) for the bets to be valid. If a match is suspended or rescheduled before the scheduled start time, all bets will be void.

Baseball other than MLB (Major League Baseball) (including minor baseball leagues): All bets (including specific pitcher) will be valid regardless of who is the pitcher of each team. The rule of 8½ innings will apply although in the case of the decision to apply the 'Mercy Rule', all bets will be settled based on the score at that time. The 6½ innings rule will apply to all 7 innings games played.

In the '2-way' markets, the Push rules will apply unless specified otherwise. The amount wagered on single bets will be returned, while on multiple / combined bets (parlays), the selection will be considered as 'Void'.

6.1.1 MLB Bets

4. It is the client's responsibility to be aware of any pitching changes.
5. Money Line (Action): Team against team, regardless of the pitcher who starts the game. For betting purposes, the pitcher who makes the first throw is considered as the starting pitcher. When placing bets, pitchers can be specified.
6. A designated pitcher: A bet is made for or against a specified pitcher to be the starting pitcher of one of the teams, regardless of who is the starting pitcher of the opposing team. The listed pitcher must start the game, otherwise the bet will be void.
7. Both listed pitchers must start: A bet that specifies both pitchers start. If any change occurs, the bet will be void.
8. In the event of a change in one of the initial pitchers before the start of the match, the bets may be adjusted to totals and the handicap.
9. Double change of pitchers: When changing a pitcher that appears in the list and is put back for the determination of bets, these will be considered as a normal change of the pitcher.
10. For betting purposes, the 1st Half of a baseball game is counted from the start of the game until the end of the 5th inning (5 Full Innings).

6.1.2 Way to deal with pitcher changes

11. When the bets are placed in Money Line Action, 5 Innings Money Line and there is a change of starting pitcher, the bets will remain active and bets for total runs (over / under), Team totals (over / under), run line (handicap) and alternative run line (alternative handicap) will be considered void.
12. A pitcher is considered official after making the first pitch.

13. For any MLB play-off suspended event, which is completed within 72 hours, all bets will stand and will be determined after the game is completed. If the match is not completed within 72 hours of the suspension, all bets will be void, unless the result has already been determined.

14. If the game venue changes, bets will remain valid as the home team stands as the host. If the home or away team change, bets based on the original event will be void.

6.1.3 Rule of the four and a half innings (4½ innings rule)

15. Money Line - There must be at least 5 full innings of play unless the team batting second is leading after 4½ innings, for bets to stand. If the game is called, or suspended, after this point of the game is reached, then the winner is determined by the score after the last full inning (unless the team batting second scores to tie, or takes the lead in the bottom half of the inning, in which case the winner is determined by the score at the time the game is called). Please note that suspended games do not carry over (with the exception of MLB play-off games - see specific rule). However, in the event of a Mercy Rule being called, all bets will stand on the score at the time.

6.1.4 Rule of six and a half innings (6½ innings rule)

determined, e.g. MLB game is called, or suspended at 5-5, bets on Game Totals of Over 10 or 10.5 would be settled as winners, with bets on Under 10 or 10.5 being settled as losers, since any natural conclusion to the match would have at least 11 runs. 16 E-Sports

16.3 General Rules

16.3.1 Settlement

All bets will be settled as void, if a match is displayed available for betting incorrectly.

If a player or team is granted a walkover or win by an official representative (admin, organizer of the competition) on a map before its start, all bets will be settled as void.

If a game or map is replayed due to disconnection or technical issues, all bets regarding this market will be settled as void, unless the result has already been determined prior to the issue.

Bets on a player or team to win at least one map are settled as void, if the match starts, but is not completed, unless the result has already been determined prior to the issue.

Where an event involves the same two players or teams playing multiple games or maps, for example "best of 3", and one or more games or maps are not played because the result of the event has already been determined, bets on unplayed games or maps are void and stakes refunded.

If the scheduled number of rounds or maps is changed, or if markets are erroneously offered based on a different number of rounds or maps from the actually scheduled number, then bets on the winning margin (including handicap), total rounds / maps, correct scores etc. are void and stakes refunded. Map winner and matchup winner bets stand.

In the case of indexed or numbered markets (such as the winner of a specific round in Counter Strike: GO, or the team to score a particular numbered kill in League of Legends or DOTA2), the index determines the objective that counts. Words such as "next" in the market name are not guaranteed to be correct, as broadcasts may be delayed and we may not always advance the index precisely when an objective is scored or a round completed. All bets are therefore settled on the particular numbered round or objective specified, regardless of any other wording in the market name or its timing in relation to when the bet was placed.

If any map is not played or is awarded to one player or team by walkover or default without play having commenced, all bets on that map and on the matchup as a whole are void and stakes refunded. Bets relating only to maps that are played stand. A map is deemed to have started as soon as the gameclock starts or either team or player takes a game action relating to that map, including picks, bans and weapon purchases.

16.3.2 Abandoned/Postponed Information

Dates and start times are shown for information purposes only and may not be accurate. Where an event is cancelled, postponed or interrupted and not completed within 48 hours of the originally scheduled start time, bets on that event are void and stakes refunded. However, games or maps that are completed within 48 hours are settled normally even if additional games or maps that were supposed to be part of the same matchup are cancelled or further postponed.

All bets will be settled using the official result declared by the relevant governing body of the competition.

The bets of an interrupted or postponed matches, which do take place within a tournament, will stand provided the match is completed before the end of the competition.

16.3.3 Specific sports rules for League of Legends

For bets involving towers, all destroyed towers count as having been destroyed by the opposing team even if the last hit was from a minion.

For bets involving inhibitors, all destroyed inhibitors count as having been destroyed by the opposing team even if the last hit was from a minion. For bets involving the number of inhibitors destroyed, each of the six inhibitors counts only once, even if it is destroyed, respawns and is destroyed again. For bets involving the next inhibitor destroyed, each destruction of an inhibitor counts separately, even where it has respawned and is being destroyed for a second or subsequent time.

For bets involving kills (including “First Blood”, which in League of Legends is synonymous with the first kill on the map), the official broadcast or game API if available is definitive in determining whether the death of a Champion counts as a kill. For example, where a Champion is killed by tower or minion damage without the involvement of an enemy Champion this may not be registered as a kill on the broadcast, in which case it does not count as a kill for bet settlement purposes.

For bets involving the next team to score a particular objective or the team to score the most of a particular objective, where a “neither” or “draw” option is offered and is the winning outcome, bets on either team are losers. Where no such selection is offered and neither team is a winner, all bets on the market are void and stakes refunded.

Where one team surrenders, bets stand and are settled as follows. For bets involving the map winner, the winning team is the team that did not surrender. Bets involving dragons, barons and kills are settled based on the situation at the time the surrender takes place. Bets involving towers and inhibitors are settled as if the winning team had destroyed the minimum number of additional towers and / or inhibitors theoretically required to win the game normally from the position when the surrender occurred. For example, if any inhibitor of the losing team is down at the time of surrender then no additional inhibitor is deemed to have been destroyed. If no inhibitor of the losing team is down then the winning team is deemed to have destroyed one additional inhibitor, with priority given to an inhibitor that has already been destroyed if such an inhibitor exists and has respawned. If the winning team has destroyed all tier 1 towers and one tier 2 tower, then it will be deemed to have destroyed three further towers (seven in total), since it would have needed to destroy at least one tier 3 tower and the two nexus towers to have won the game normally from that position.

16.3.4 Specific sports rules for DOTA2

For bets involving towers, all destroyed towers count as having been destroyed by the opposing team even if the last hit was from a minion.

For bets involving barracks, all destroyed barracks count as having been destroyed by the opposing team even if the last hit was from a minion. The ranged and melee barracks in each pair count as separate barracks, so that each team has a total of six barracks.

For bets involving kills (other than “First Blood”), the official broadcast or game API if available is definitive in determining whether the death of a Champion counts as a kill. For example, where a Champion is killed by tower or minion damage without the involvement of an enemy Champion this may not be registered as a kill on the broadcast, in which case it does not count as a kill for bet settlement purposes.

For bets on First Blood, the broadcast or official API score must register the kill as First Blood. Where, for example, a kill is denied by a team-mate, it may not be counted as First Blood (regardless of whether it is registered as a kill on the broadcast kill counter), in which case it will not count as First Blood for bet settlement purposes. For the avoidance of doubt, all kill markets other than “First Blood” are settled based on the kill counter, but a kill that is registered on the kill counter will count as First Blood only if is announced as such.

For bets on Roshans, the team that scores the last hit on Roshan as determined by the broadcast or game API if available is deemed to have slain Roshan, regardless of the player who picks up the aegis of the immortal.

For bets involving the next team to score a particular objective or the team to score the most of a particular objective, where a “neither” or “draw” option is offered and is the winning outcome, bets on either team are losers. Where no such selection is offered and neither team is a winner, all bets on the market are void and stakes refunded.

Where one team surrenders, bets stand and are settled as follows. For bets involving the map winner, the winning team is the team that did not surrender. Bets involving Roshans, barracks and kills are settled based on the situation at the time the surrender takes place. Bets involving towers are settled as if the winning team had destroyed the minimum number of additional towers theoretically required to win the game normally from the position when the surrender occurred. For example, if the winning team has destroyed all tier 1 towers and one tier 2 tower, then it will be deemed to have destroyed three further towers (seven in total), since it would have needed to destroy at least one tier 3 tower and the two ancient towers to have won the game normally from that position.

16.3.5 Specific sports rules for Counter Strike: GO

Most map bets are based on the scheduled number of rounds (usually best of 30) excluding extra rounds played in the event of a draw. If, however, a map winner market is offered without a “draw” selection then this is settled in favour of the overall winner of the map including extra time if played.

Unless a player selects the show or, where available, the early price, all bets on Horse racing will be settled at the SP. In the event that no official SP is returned or in the event that no price is taken, then all SP bets will be settled according to the last Industry show passed.

25.1.1 Settlement

All races will be settled according to the official result, as soon as it is confirmed through the Weighed In signal through announcement or on a display. Any subsequent disqualifications will not count for settlement purposes except for UK & Irish Racing. In the event of a meeting not starting, or no starter reaching the end of the race, all bets are void and the stake will be paid back (odd: 1.00).

Where a 'no-race' is declared and is subsequently re-run bets are settled on the re-run, with bets being settled at the price quoted or returned for the original race. Horses which came under starters orders in the original race will be considered losers if not taking part in the re-run race.
