4 Draws

4.1 When can Quaterno Xpress be Played?

Players can play Quaterno Xpress from Monday to Sunday during the allowed playing hours, excluding the draw break. On Tuesdays and Saturdays, tickets can be bought until 20:00hrs, as participation is allowed until 30 minutes before the draw time.

The Lotto draw, which is used as the basis for prize fulfilment for the Quaterno Xpress game, is held every Tuesday and Saturday. The draws are broadcast live on TV, with the live stream and recorded draws also available on the National Lottery website.

4.2 How is the Draw Conducted?

The Lotto draw is held in the presence of:

- i. A representative of the Authority
- ii. A Notary Public

The Notary Public, who will be present at the draw, will draw up and sign a record of the proceedings, which are entered in a register kept for that purpose.

4.3 Consecutive Draws

The player is given the choice to participate with the same set of numbers in more than one (1) draw by choosing to participate with 'CONSECUTIVE DRAWS'.

The player has the possibility to participate in up to a maximum of sixty (60) consecutive draws.

5 Cost of Entry in Quaterno Xpress

The basic stake for Quaterno Xpress is €2.00.

If more than the minimum required numbers, i.e., four (4) numbers are selected, the cost of the ticket increases according to the number of columns created. (Refer to the table on page 5).

6 Quaterno Xpress Prize

To win in the Quaterno Xpress, the player must match any four (4) numbers in his/her participation with the five (5) drawn numbers. The more numbers the player plays, the greater the winning probabilities.

The Quaterno Xpress game offers a fixed prize of €500,000 when matching four (4) out of five (5) numbers drawn. The odds of this game type are 1:511,038.

In the event that multiple players correctly match four (4) out of five (5) numbers drawn, the fixed jackpot is split amongst the players respectively.
